Bradshaw goes wire to wire at the SCGA Junior Championship

Thomas Bradshaw kept up the great play in his wire to wire win with a final round of 69. Thanks to nines of 32 and 37, the Columbia native won the 50th Championship by a commanding 7 shots. Bradshaw finished at 11 under par and the 3A HS State Champion is off to a hot start for the summer. Sumter's Hayden Letien finished off a great championship with a solo second 4 under par effort of 212.

Miller Capps held on to the top spot in the boys 13-14 division. He shot a 79 for the final round to end up at 2 over par 218. Matthew Nesmith came close with a 220 total to finish in solo second place. Capps was also involved in a three way playoff to determine the top 8 players that will represent the SCGA in the annual GA-SC Team matches in which he was successful as coming out the victor.

The 2008 field consists of 136 competitors from all across SC that have earned their way via four regional qualifiers or were exempt based on 2007-2008 tournament finishes. The Champion will receive an exemption into the SCGA Amateur Championship and the International Junior Four Ball.

For this year's South Carolina Golf Association's Junior Championship, the competitors with previous experience will notice an enhanced atmosphere. The Heritage Classic Foundation has signed on as presenting sponsor for the South Carolina Championship. This year's contest will make a historical visit back to the Country Club of Lexington, where it was played for 29 years before moving to other sites around the state of SC. The staff and the membership have been the epitome of southern hospitality for the playing guests of the championship.

The Heritage Classic Foundation is the general sponsor of the Verizon Heritage, the Verizon Junior Heritage and The Players Amateur and has raised more than $16.6 million for charity since its inception in 1987. The Heritage Classic Foundation has a long history of supporting junior golf programs in SC. They have been the title sponsor of the South Carolina Junior Golf Association Rankings for the past seven years. They have also been a primary sponsor for the only International Junior Four Ball Tournament held at the Savannah Westin Resort - home of the Champions Tour Liberty Mutual Legends of Golf. They also have been a vital part of putting golf in schools through a pilot First Tee program in Beaufort County Schools.

For more information, contact Chris Miller with the SCGA at (803) 732-9311. Press releases will follow each round.

For more information about the Heritage Classic Foundation, contact Angela McSwain at (843) 671-2448.

The SCGA Junior Championship is one of 19 major events conducted by the SCGA. Results, schedules and applications may be accessed via the Internet at www.scjga.org.
